

Contents

Preface to the Second Edition	xiii
Introduction	1
1. The Rediscovery of the Commons	9
Part I. Enclosure, Dispossession, and the Eclipse of Commoning	23
2. The Tyranny of the “Tragedy” Myth	25
3. Enclosures of Nature	39
The Massive International Land Grab	44
The Privatization of Water	46
The Corporatization of Food	48
4. All That Is Shared Becomes a Market Commodity	53
The Marketization of Universities and Their Research	60
Enclosures of Infrastructure	64
Enclosures of Civic Infrastructure	68
The Many Costs of Enclosure	72
Part II. Commons as Living, Generative Systems	77
5. Many Galaxies of Commons	79
Subsistence Commons	81
Indigenous Peoples’ Commons	83
Mutual Aid and Gift Economies	87
Alternative Local Currencies	90
Cooperatives	96
6. The Eclipsed History of the Commons	99
What Evolutionary Sciences Tell Us About Cooperation	101

The Forgotten Legal History of the Commons	104
The Liberal State and the Eclipse of Vernacular Law	115
7. The Commons as a Relational Organism	121
The Metaphysics of the Commons Is Relational	127
8. Local, Vernacular, and Alive	135
Commoning Our Way to a Land Ethic	137
Vernacular Culture and the Commons	142
A New Vision of Local Development	143
Urban Commons	145
9. Digital Rebels in the Big Tech Imperium	151
It All Began with Free Software	153
Creative Commons: A License to Share	156
The Open-Access Publishing Revolution	159
Cosmolocal Production, DAOs, and Commons Infrastructures	162
Part III. Expanding the Commonsverse	167
10. Relationalized Property and Finance	169
The Inalienable Rights of Commoners	172
John Locke's Theories About Property Rights	173
The Measure of Wealth	177
Relationalized Property	180
Relationalized Finance	184
11. Reimagining State Power	187
State Power and Commons Are Different Orders of Life	189
Commoning and International Law	192
State Trustee Commons	194
Legal Hacks on Western Jurisprudence	196
Commons/Public Partnerships	199
Conclusion: The Future of the Commons	205
The Commons as Gift and Duty	211

Tools for Exploring the Commonsverse	213
The Commons, Short and Sweet	214
The Triad of Commoning: Social Life, Peer Governance, and Provisioning	217
The Logic of the Commons and the Market	219
Further Reading	222
Websites Engaged with Commons and Commoning	228
Acknowledgments	231
Index	233
About the Author	247
About New Society Publishers	248