Contents

Acknowledgments ......................................................... ix
Foreword by Bill McKibben ........................................... xi
Introduction: Drawing a Collective Map of Earth Island . 1

Chapter 1: Lessons from Our Ancestors ......................... 7
  Cultural Indicators  |  Tibetan Nomads  |  Balinese Water Temples
  Inuit Traditional Knowledge  |  The Kogi: Guardians of the Planet
  The Value of Traditional Knowledge  |  The Extinction of Languages
  Building Community  |  Taking Action

Chapter 2: Going “Glocal” ............................................. 25
  Transition Initiatives  |  Sustainability Street
  Salmon Nation  |  Regional Climate Plans
  National Initiatives: Sweden and New Zealand
  International Environmental Plans  |  Glocalization Reframed
  Taking Action

Chapter 3: Greening Commerce .................................... 47
  The New Bottom Lines  |  The Drivers
  Implementing Nature’s Strategies  |  The Trilogy
  Growth, Consumption and Pollution  |  Creating New Alliances
  Mission-Based Enterprises  |  A New Role for Civil Society
  Blue Chip Companies Turn Green  |  Tax Shifting
  Providing Tools and Metrics  |  Building New Business Models
  Taking Action

Chapter 4: Regenerative Design ..................................... 73
  New Design Approaches and Objectives
  Design Tools and Frameworks
  Building Green Homes, Towns and Cities