
Table of Contents

Preface	xi
Overview	1
What is mediation?	3
A useful tool.	4
What makes mediation work?	5
The mediator's role	6
The anatomy of the mediation process	7
The anatomy of a session	8
Process-centered mediation	9
Guiding principles	10
Mediation terms	11

THE PROCESS

Getting to the Table	13
Can mediation help this situation?	15
How people find a mediator	16
Voluntary or mandatory?	17
Initial conversations	18
Do they want to participate?	19
Defining the scope	21
Approaching the other parties	22
Should I be the mediator?	24
Pre-mediation agreements and review	25
Choosing a location	26
The Mediation Session Part I: Exploring the Situation.	27
Preparing yourself, co-mediators	29
Setting up.	30
Opening	31
Opening: Welcome & warm-up	32
Opening: Logistics.	33
Opening: Orientation	34
Opening: Participants' role, willingness	35

Listening to Each Perspective	36
The Exchange	39
The Exchange: Facilitating	40
The Exchange: Tasks & flow	41
Clarify information	43
Check out interpretations	44
Listen for their concerns	45
Example + impact	46
Restate their interests	47
Note other relevant interests	48
Encourage empathy and reconciliation	49
Transition to Reaching Resolution	50
Separate Conversations	51
Uses for Separate Conversations.	52
Breaking for Separate Conversations	53
Separate Conversations: Template	54
The Mediation Session Part II: Reaching Resolution	55
Reaching Resolution.	57
Reaching Resolution: Sequence	58
Topic List	59
Topic List: Why it is crucial	60
Topic List: Drafting.	61
Topic List: Wording	62
Midpoint check-in	63
Options	64
Options: Together come up with ideas	65
Options: Gut, interests, workability	66
Options: Reality testing	67
Decisions	68
Decisions: Gut, interests, workability	69
Decisions: Emotions, hesitations	70
Writing the Agreement.	71
Writing the Agreement: Specifics.	73
Writing the Agreement: Positive framing	74
Closing	75
Afterwards: Wrapping up.	77
Multiple sessions	78

THE TOOLBOX

Understanding Conflict	79
Disputes & conflicts	81
Metaphors for understanding conflict.	82
The conflict core	84
Common effects of conflict.	86
The pleasures of conflict.	87
When things heat up.	88
The way out is through	89
The Conflict Triangle.	90
People, Process, Problem	91
Which mode are you in?	92
Supporting the People	93
Supporting the people: Main skills	95
Setting the tone	96
Level of formality, taking notes	97
Confidentiality in practice	98
Giving your full attention	99
Elements of full attention.	100
Acknowledging	101
Handling judgmental remarks	102
Protecting	103
From adversarial mode to cooperative mode	104
Avoid this Kettle of Fish	106
Attending to comfort & accessibility	107
Language and hearing difficulties	108
Working with people in all their variety	109
Finding commonalities.	110
Scenarios: Emotionally difficult situations	111
Facilitating the Process	115
Facilitating the process	117
Impartial facilitation	118
Structuring the session	119
Structuring the discussion	120
When you can be directive.	121
When to consult	122

Keeping on track	123
Crafting questions	124
Crafting questions: Word with care	125
Crafting questions: Spin it positive	126
Crafting questions: Follow up for clarification	127
Kinds of rewording	128
Reflecting back	129
Summarizing	130
Summarizing: Its many uses	131
Working visually	132
When to intervene	133
When to intervene: Stopping the momentum	134
When to intervene: Slowing the process down	135
Is it time to quit?	136
Ending a mediation	137
Scenarios: Facilitation challenges	138
Solving the Problem	141
Participants' starting point: Power & rights	143
Changing the "positions" mindset	144
Interests	145
Layers of interests	146
Why interests matter	147
Finding space for solutions	148
Reframing	149
Checking out (mis)interpretations	150
Lies, perceptions, deceptions	151
Plain description of facts and needs	152
Flip it! → Outcome-focused interests	154
Tactful wording of interests and topics	155
Summary of interests	156
Topic List examples	157
Eliciting ideas: Brainstorming	158
Eliciting ideas: Opening up possibilities	159
Can mediators suggest options?	161
Visual aids for making decisions	162
Types of resolution	163
"Typical" or "good enough" resolutions	164

What-ifs	165
Fallbacks: Contingencies, uncertainties.	166
Step-down agreements: Smaller scope	167
When there’s no agreement	168
Final review: Workability	169
Final review: Future	170
Sample agreements	171
Scenarios: problem-solving challenges	173
Going Further	175
Going further	177
Adapting the process	178
Mediating with children & teens	179
Mediating across generations	180
Mediating family conflicts	181
Mediating employee conflicts	182
Participant evaluation	184
Mediator evaluation of a mediation.	185
Evaluating yourself	186
The Handbook “soup pot”	187
Authors & contributors.	188
Organizational support	189
Index	191